

Matthew House
Refugee Welcome Centre - Windsor

Matthew House Hosts (Live-In)

Matthew House has quickly become the leading settlement and support agency for Refugee Claimants in Windsor-Essex. If you join us, you will become part of a fast-paced and dedicated team that uses a HOME and FAMILY model to provide HOPE for newly arrived Refugee. Our shared goal is to see these vulnerable individuals quickly become self-sufficient, contributing members of our community. We are a faith based organization that welcomes all refugees regardless of their race, religion, sexual orientation or political opinion and seek to help people develop confidence and restore their personal dignity. To learn more visit www.matthewhousewindsor.org

Status:	Permanent part-time
Hours and Rate:	furnished accommodations, utilities, and internet
Start Date:	May 15, 2023
Application Deadline:	Posting will remain active and interviews will be conducted until a candidate has been selected. Those interested are encouraged to apply right away.

Position Summary: Under the guidance of Matthew House's Executive Director, Matthew House Hosts are the live-in, social glue for our residents, ensuring they feel welcomed and connected in community. Hosts provide on-call emergency response between the hours of 9pm and 9am. As part of the staff team, the Hosts seek to cultivate relationship with our residents and are active in the life of the ministry.

Key Responsibilities: relationship development, safety, security, and crisis response

Preferred Qualifications:

- Relationally minded with ability to quickly establish rapport.
- Ability to speak a second language
- Demonstrated Christian faith and adherence to orthodox Christian doctrine, or comfortable with working in a faith based environment
- Experience working cross culturally and comfortable with diverse languages

Candidates are encouraged to view the full job description available at:

<http://matthewhousewindsor.org/getinvolved>

Please send resume and cover letter by e-mail only to: Mike Morency, Executive Director mike@matthewhousewindsor.org

We appreciate all applications but regret that only those selected for an interview will be contacted directly.